

Dear Association team,

I am addressing you on behalf of Georgian Publishers and Booksellers Association. I want to ask for your assistance and support in spreading out the information in this email to your member publishers.

After the long expectation and a hard work of preparation process 2018 is finally here and we are getting ready for Georgia Guest of Honour at Frankfurter Buchmesse this October, which is probably a known fact to you.

The association is in charge of the Publishing Program at this very significant event. Humbled and honored with the responsibility, we are working to structurize and plan the program in a manner that will represent Georgian publishers in a full scale and will maximize the outcome for them.

On the course of business days our attention will be placed on establishment of connections between Georgian and foreign publishers, to create foundation for future international cooperation.

To support this initiative, Georgian Publishers and Booksellers Association will be hosting three business breakfast events on the first three days at the book fair. During a breakfast hour, 5-6 Georgian publishers will have a 4-minute presentation slot and the rest of the occasion will be dedicated to a non-formal business networking.

Each day has a specific focus differentiating target audience, in order to make meetings more result-oriented.

Location: Georgian National stand, Hall 5

Time and duration: 09:00-10:00 AM

Dates:

10.10.2018 - The Bridge; German language publishers in focus

11.10.2018 - Together for Little Readers; children's literature publishers in focus

12.10.2018 - Mix & Match; focus is placed on publishers from: Canada, Finland, Flanders & Netherlands, Italy, Norway, Spain

With this email you are receiving an invitation to attend business breakfast(s). Please take a minute to fill out the registration form below in case of accepting it.
